INFORMATION ON THE COMPANY

1. Background to the establishment of the Company

Judges Capital is a new company established to invest in a small number of quoted companies where the Directors believe an opportunity exists to increase shareholder value and where the size of Judges Capital's stake will enable it to influence the target to pursue this opportunity.

David Cicurel, Chief Executive of Judges Capital, has conducted the Company's intended activity with his own funds for a number of years and now wishes to expand this activity. DCI, a company in which David Cicurel has a beneficial interest, has committed to invest £500,000 in the Placing at the Placing Price. It is intended that the net proceeds of the Placing of £1.8 million will enable Judges Capital to invest in several targets at the same time and to obtain an interest in each target that is sufficient to initiate corporate changes.

2. The investment environment

Small mature quoted companies are largely ignored by the investment community and the Directors believe that many are trading at low multiples and/or at a substantial discount to the realisable value of their constituent parts. Liquidity in their shares is often minimal.

The Directors believe that, in many instances, the management of such companies consider the enhancement of shareholder value as a relatively low priority or lack the insight and/or the determination necessary to deliver a step-change in valuation.

At the same time, the private equity industry has access to substantial committed funds and possesses a strong appetite for acquisitions that can serve to strengthen investment portfolios. The Directors believe that many public companies with market values that are too small to sustain institutional interest represent attractive sized acquisitions for the private equity community. However, most private equity funds do not invest in publicly traded shares. The Directors expect that by initiating public-to-private transactions, the Company's activities will create a flow of new opportunities that will prove attractive to the private equity community.

3. Investment selection

Judges Capital will invest in mature quoted companies where a public-to-private transaction would be expected to deliver a substantial premium to the market price. It will, in effect, act as a catalyst for change and, by way of a friendly but resolute approach, will seek to encourage the target to go private. Judges Capital will also endeavour to assist in the execution of this exercise.

Ideal targets will possess able operating management, owning only a small interest in the business, with a substantial proportion of the equity held by institutions. In the absence of a clearly defined value enhancing strategy, the Directors believe that shareholders who are nursing paper losses in such targets will have little expectation of recouping such losses in the medium term in the light of the general apathy of the investment community towards smaller companies

Judges Capital will also pursue quoted companies where the Directors believe that shareholder value would benefit from a change of strategy, a break-up, an asset disposal, a refinancing or any other form of corporate restructuring, including, where appropriate, the return of excess cash to shareholders.

The market capitalisation of a typical portfolio company is expected to range between £10 million and £100 million.

4. Exit routes

Before investing in a target, Judges Capital will have identified a favoured exit strategy such as a public-to-private transaction, the delivery of the company to a trade buyer, a break up or the implementation of a cash distribution. The route to an exit may include taking control of the target company through a public takeover bid. Judges Capital will adopt a flexible strategy and the Directors may choose to pursue various value enhancement and realisation strategies simultaneously.

Similarly, the Directors can be expected to adopt a pragmatic approach should opportunities to exit investments emerge before Judges Capital's original objectives have been achieved.

5. Portfolio guidelines

Judges Capital will endeavour to balance its portfolio with approximately five positions at any one time. These special situations will, ideally, be at different stages of maturity, in different sectors and will involve different levels of management co-operation.

The Directors, taking into account the risk profile of the portfolio, may utilise a prudent level of bank debt to enhance returns.

6. Co-investment

Judges Capital may invite co-investors to participate in an individual transaction for which they will pay Judges Capital a share of their profits. This could serve to boost the return on the funds invested in a target and enable Judges Capital to pursue a strategy, such as an outright bid for a target, that might otherwise lead to an imbalance in the portfolio.

7. Costs

The Directors will endeavour to keep the Company's cost base low and, to this end, will outsource services rather than create internal administration overheads.

8. Relevant experience

David Cicurel spearheaded an early public-to-private transaction in the UK (Continental Foods in 1996) and was involved in a similar transaction in the US. He was an active investor in Shiloh plc, an old-fashioned textile company with an attractive health products division, for approximately three years during which period the share price appreciated 137 per cent. (an internal rate of return of approximately 32 per cent. per annum), and in Izodia plc, a cash-rich, loss-making technology company, for approximately four months, during which period the share price increased 100 per cent. He has been involved in two proxy battles (International Communications and Data plc in 1993 and Shiloh plc in 2000). The above examples are illustrative and no assurances can be given that such results will be achieved by Judges Capital on its investments.

The Directors expect that the execution of the Company's investment strategy will be enhanced by Alex Hambro's extensive experience in the UK's private equity industry and Glynn Reece's experience in deal origination and research.

9. Corporate strategy

It is the intention of the Board that, subject to Judges Capital gaining sufficient credibility in the investment community, the Company will endeavour to increase its available resources by issuing Ordinary Shares in exchange for shares in target companies. Judges Capital will also consider issuing shares for cash should the Board take the view that such an exercise is in the best interests of shareholders.

Should Judges Capital's shares trade at a significant discount to net asset value, the Board will consider a buy back of Ordinary Shares through the market. Judges Capital intends to propose a resolution to wind itself up no later than its fourth annual general meeting, an option that will subsequently be put to shareholders at least once every three years.

Subject to Judges Capital's reputation becoming well established so that it is able to raise substantially larger sums than under this Placing, the Directors may propose to wind up the Company's investment portfolio and distribute the majority of available cash resources to shareholders. The Company would then become a fund manager of third party assets instead of investing its own assets, and may achieve for its shareholders a market rating in line with the fund management sector.

10. Prospects

In view of the fact that Judges Capital is a newly incorporated company, it is difficult to evaluate the Company's prospects at this stage, particularly as such prospects will be dependent, among other things, on the performance of its investments.

11. Directors

The Hon. Alex Hambro (Non-Executive Chairman), aged 40, has spent the last 15 years in the private equity sector, much of this time at Hambros PLC or at associate organisations. As a Director of Hambro Group Investments he was responsible for the establishment and operation of the Hambro Private Equity Group which sponsored nine fund managers in the UK and certain other countries. He has recently assisted a number of private equity partners in their respective marketing programmes and has acted as a consultant to a number of investors in respect of private equity investment strategies.

David Cicurel (Chief Executive), aged 53, has spent much of his working life as a turnaround specialist. He has been responsible for a number of corporate recovery exercises including two UK public companies (International Media Communications plc and International Communication and Data plc). Since 1998 he has used his own funds to invest in undervalued companies.

Glynn Reece (Non-Executive Director), aged 44, is responsible for M&A Advisory and deal origination at CLB Corporate Finance. Glynn is a qualified solicitor and he was formerly involved in deal origination at Coopers & Lybrand and subsequently at Arthur Andersen Corporate Finance where he was head of deal origination and research.

Ralph Elman FCA (Finance Director), aged 49, is senior partner of Elman Wall, a London-based accounting practice. He is Finance Director of Paramount PLC and is a former Finance Director of several quoted companies including International Communications and Data plc and Delyn plc.

12. Corporate governance

The Directors recognise the value of the Principles of Good Governance and Code of Best Practice (the "Combined Code") and will take such measures as are necessary to ensure that the Company complies with the Combined Code in so far as the Directors deem appropriate for a company of its size.

The Directors will establish an audit committee and a remuneration committee with formally delegated duties and responsibilities. The members of both committees will be the non-executive Directors.

The audit committee will determine the terms of engagement of the Company's auditors and will determine, in consultation with the Company's auditors, the scope of the audit. It will receive and review reports from management and the Company's auditors relating to the interim and annual accounts and the accounting and internal control systems in use by the Company. The audit committee will have unrestricted access to the Company's auditors. The remuneration committee will review the scale and structure of the executive Directors' remuneration and the terms of their service contracts. The remuneration of the non-executive Directors will be determined by the Board as a whole.

13. Dividend policy

The Directors intend to commence the payment of dividends when it becomes commercially prudent to do so, subject to the availability of distributable reserves. The Directors consider that, in the short term, it is likely that cash generated will be retained to fund the Company's expansion.

14. The Placing

The Company is raising approximately £2 million by way of the Placing. DCI has committed to subscribe £500,000 in aggregate for 526,316 Placing Shares under the Placing (representing approximately 25 per cent. of the total number of Placing Shares) at the Placing Price.

Pursuant to the Placing, the Company is to issue 2,106,316 new Ordinary Shares at the Placing Price, before expenses. After the expenses of the Placing and the Admission, estimated in total at £200,000 (including VAT), the Placing is intended to raise £1.8 million. The Placing Shares have been conditionally placed with institutional and other investors. The Placing has not been underwritten. The Placing Shares will represent 100 per cent. of the Ordinary Shares in issue on Admission. The Placing Shares will be issued credited as fully paid and will rank pari passu with the other Ordinary Shares in issue on Admission, including the right to receive all dividends and other distributions hereafter declared, made or paid.

The Placing is conditional, inter alia, on:

- (a) the Placing Agreement becoming unconditional (save for Admission) and not having been terminated in accordance with its terms prior to Admission; and
- (b) Admission becoming effective no later than 7 January 2003 or such later date as Dawnay Day may agree, but in any event not later than 24 January 2003.

Further details of the Placing Agreement are set out in paragraph 7 of Part 4 of this document.

The Directors intend to use the net proceeds of the Placing to finance the purchase of investments and to fund the modest working capital requirements of the Company.

Application will be made for all the issued and to be issued Ordinary Shares to be admitted to CREST with effect from Admission. Accordingly, settlement of transactions in the Ordinary Shares following Admission may take place through CREST.

It is expected that, subject to the Placing Agreement becoming unconditional, the Placing Shares will be registered in the names of the placees and issued either:

- (a) in certificated form, where the placee so elects, with the relevant share certificate expected to be despatched by post, at the placee's risk, by 14 January 2003; or
- (b) in CREST, where the placee so elects and only if the placee is a "system member" (as defined in the Uncertificated Securities Regulations 2001) in relation to CREST, with delivery (to the designated CREST account) of the Ordinary Shares subscribed for expected to take place on 7 January 2003.

Regardless of the form of delivery of the Placing Shares elected for by placees, no temporary documents of title will be issued. All documents or remittances sent by or to a placee, or as he may direct, will be sent through the post at his risk.

Pending the despatch of definitive share certificates (as applicable), instruments of transfer will be certified against the register.

15. Directors' interests

The Directors have subscribed for and have been issued with a total of 5,000,000 (five million) Convertible Redeemable Shares. The holders of the Convertible Redeemable Shares have the right, amongst other things, to convert all or part of their holding of Convertible Redeemable Shares into an amount of Ordinary Shares, such that if all the Convertible Redeemable Shares were converted at the same time, the total number of Ordinary Shares to be issued pursuant to the conversion will equal 12 per cent. of the enlarged issued share capital.

The amount to be paid on conversion of each Convertible Redeemable Share is equal to the Placing Price per Ordinary Share arising less the amount subscribed for the Convertible Redeemable Shares being converted.

Further details of the rights attaching to the Convertible Redeemable Shares are set out in paragraph 3.2.4 of Part 4 of this document.

The Directors have undertaken, subject to certain exceptions, not to dispose of any of their Ordinary Shares (including any Ordinary Shares to which they will be entitled on a conversion of their Convertible Redeemable Shares) for a period of two years from the date of Admission. Further details on the Directors' interests are set out in paragraph 4 of Part 4 of this document.

16. The City Code on Takeovers and Mergers

Under Rule 9 of the City Code, when (i) any person acquires shares which, when taken together with shares held by him or shares held or acquired by persons acting in concert with him, carry 30 per cent. or more of the voting rights of a company subject to the City Code or (ii) any person who, together with persons acting in concert with him, holds shares carrying not less than 30 per cent. but not more than 50 per cent. of the voting rights of a company subject to the City Code and such person, or persons acting in concert with him acquires any further shares carrying voting rights, that person is normally obliged to make a general offer to all remaining shareholders to purchase their shares at the highest price paid by him or any person acting in concert with him, within the preceding 12 months.

Following the Placing, the Concert Party will hold on Admission in aggregate Ordinary Shares carrying 55.0 per cent. of the voting rights of the Company and DCI, a member of the Concert Party, will hold 25.0 per cent. of the voting rights of the Company. Further details on the holdings of the Concert Party are set out in paragraph 4.2 of Part 4 of this document. In addition, DCI holds 4,166,667 Convertible Redeemable Shares in the Company. As a result of the conversion of all these Convertible Redeemable Shares, the Concert Party may come to hold, in aggregate, Ordinary Shares carrying a maximum of 59.6 per cent. of the voting rights of the Company, and DCI may come to hold Ordinary Shares carrying a maximum of 32.6 per cent. of the voting rights of the Company.

In this case, however, the Panel has agreed to waive any obligation under Rule 9 of the City Code that might otherwise be incurred by the Concert Party or DCI on the Placing and/or the conversion of the Convertible Redeemable Shares, on the basis that the potential maximum levels of shareholding in the Company of the Concert Party and DCI are being disclosed in this document.

As the Concert Party will hold on Admission Ordinary Shares which carry more than 50 per cent. of the voting rights of the Company, the Concert Party will be able to acquire further Ordinary Shares without incurring an obligation under Rule 9 to make a general offer, save as set out below. In such circumstances each member of the Concert Party will be able to purchase further Ordinary Shares without incurring an obligation under Rule 9 to make a general offer, provided that their individual holdings arising from the acquisition (together with any person acting in concert with them) would not, as a result of such purchase, amount to 30 per cent. or more of the voting rights of the Company at that time.

RISK FACTORS

In addition to all other information set out in this document, the following specific factors should be considered carefully in evaluating whether to make an investment in the Company. If you are in any doubt about the action you should take, you should consult a personal adviser authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 who specialises in advising on the acquisition of shares and other securities.

The Directors believe the following risks to be the most significant for potential investors. However, the risks listed do not necessarily comprise all those associated with an investment in the Company. In particular, the Company's performance may be affected by changes in market or economic conditions and in legal, regulatory and tax requirements.

1. Investment in unlisted securities

Investment in shares traded on AIM is perceived to involve a higher degree of risk than investment in companies whose shares are listed on the Official List of the UK Listing Authority. An investment in the Placing Shares may be difficult to realise. The value of the Ordinary Shares may go down as well as up. Investors may therefore realise less than, or lose all of, their original investment.

2. Market opportunities

While the Directors believe that opportunities exist to realise superior investment returns from the pursuit of active investment strategies, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to identify and realise gains from a sufficient number of situations to ensure its viability.

3. Potential loss on investments

The Company's investment strategy carries inherent risks and there can be no guarantee that any appreciation in the value of an investment by the Company will occur or that the investment objective of the Company will be achieved. For example:

- (i) the managers of portfolio companies may actively seek to frustrate the Company's investment objectives;
- (ii) the Company may not be able to achieve its intended exit route from the target, and may not be able to generate alternative exits;
- (iii) the Company may not be able to acquire a sufficient stake to effect the desired change in the management of the portfolio company;
- (iv) the rules relating to dealing with inside information will prevent the Company from conducting a full investigation of investments prior to investing and previously undisclosed underperformance or other adverse matters may only come to light after investments are made;
- (v) as a minority shareholder in portfolio companies, Judges Capital will not have control over the timing or execution of steps the portfolio companies are being encouraged to take. This could cause delays in the realisation of the Company's investment objectives; and
- (vi) targets may experience trading difficulties after the Company has acquired a stake, which may reduce the target's share price and the potential exit value for the Company.

4. Stock market performance

The performance of the Company's portfolio of investments will be affected by the overall performance of stock markets in general. While gearing will enhance growth in the value of the portfolio in a rising market, its effect in falling stock markets or valuations will be to accentuate the reduction in portfolio value.

5. Share price volatility and liquidity

The share prices of publicly traded, emerging companies can be highly volatile and illiquid. The price at which the Ordinary Shares are quoted and the price which investors may realise for their Ordinary Shares will be influenced by a large number of factors, some specific to the Company and its operations and some which may affect the quoted financial services sector or quoted companies generally. These factors could include the performance of the Company, large purchases or sales of the Ordinary Shares, legislative changes and general economic, political or regulatory conditions.

6. Market capitalisation

The market price of the Ordinary Shares may not reflect the underlying value of the Company.

7. Further issue of shares

It may be desirable for the Company to raise additional capital by way of the issue of further Ordinary Shares to enable the Company to progress through further stages of development. Any additional equity financing may be dilutive to shareholders. In addition there can be no assurance that such funding will be available to the Company.

8. Suitability

The investment offered hereby may not be suitable for all recipients of this Document. Investors are accordingly advised to consult an appropriate person authorised under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 before making their decision.

9. Dependence on key personnel

The success of the Company may depend to a significant extent on certain key directors of the Company. The loss of one or more of the key directors may have an adverse effect on the Company.

3.2.2 Variation of rights

Subject to the Act and every other statute for the time being in force concerning companies and affecting the Company (the “Statutes”), if at any time the capital of the Company is divided into different classes of shares, all or any of the rights and privileges attached to any class of share may be varied or abrogated either (i) in such a manner (if any) as may be provided by the rights attaching to such class or (ii) in the absence of any such provision, with the consent in writing of the holders of at least 75 per cent. of the nominal amount of the issued shares of the relevant class or with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of the relevant class. Unless otherwise provided by the rights attaching to any shares, these rights shall be deemed to be varied by the creation or issue of further shares ranking in any respect in priority thereto.

3.2.3 Alteration of capital

- (a) The Company may from time to time by ordinary resolution increase its share capital, consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of a larger amount, subdivide all or any of its shares into shares of a smaller amount and cancel any shares not taken or agreed to be taken by any person.
- (b) The Company may, subject to the Statutes, by special resolution reduce its share capital, any capital redemption reserve and any share premium account. Subject to and in accordance with the provisions of the Statutes, the Company may purchase its own shares (including redeemable shares).

3.2.4 Convertible Redeemable Shares

- (a) The holders of the Convertible Redeemable Shares shall not be entitled to any rights of participation in the profits of the Company.

 - (i) first in repaying the capital paid up or credited as paid up on the Ordinary Shares;
 - (ii) secondly, in repaying the capital paid up or credited as paid up on the Convertible Redeemable Shares; and
 - (iii) thirdly, subject to any special rights which may be attached to any class of shares which may be issued in the future, in being distributed rateably amongst the holders of the Ordinary Shares according to the amounts paid up or credited as paid up thereon and so that the holders of the Convertible Redeemable Shares shall have no right of participation in such assets.

- (c) The Convertible Redeemable Shares shall entitle the holders to receive notice of but shall not entitle the holders to attend and vote at general meetings of the Company unless the business of the meeting includes the consideration of a resolution for winding up the Company or for the appointment of an administrator or the approval of a voluntary arrangement or any resolution directly or adversely modifying or abrogating any of the special rights and privileges attached to the Convertible Redeemable Shares, in which case, each holder of Convertible Redeemable Shares present in person or (being a corporation) by a representative shall on a show of hands have one vote and on a poll each such holder present in person or by proxy or (being a corporation) by a representative shall be entitled to exercise the number of votes which he would have been entitled to exercise if all the Convertible Redeemable Shares held by him had been converted into Ordinary Shares at the Conversion Rate (as defined below) then applicable.
- (d) On payment to the Company of the aggregate of (i) a sum equal to any amount which has not been called or which is otherwise unpaid in respect of all of the Convertible Redeemable Shares to be converted and (ii) a further sum equal to 95 pence multiplied by the number of Ordinary Shares to be issued as a result of the conversion less the amount paid up or deemed paid up (including the amount referred to in (i) above) in respect of the Convertible Redeemable Shares to be converted (“Conversion Price”), each holder of Convertible Redeemable Shares shall be entitled to convert all or any of his Convertible Redeemable Shares into such number of fully paid Ordinary Shares which represents 0.24 per cent. of the number of Ordinary Shares in issue, assuming that all the Convertible Redeemable Shares remaining capable of being converted into Ordinary Shares at the date of which the conversion takes place had been converted at the same time, for every 100,000 Convertible Redeemable Shares so converted and so in proportion for any greater or lesser number of Convertible Redeemable Shares (“Conversion Rate”).
- (e) The Ordinary Shares resulting from the conversion will carry the right to receive all dividends and (unless an adjustment shall have been made in respect thereof) other distributions declared, made or paid on the Ordinary Share capital of the Company in respect of which the record date falls after the applicable Conversion Date and shall otherwise rank pari passu in all respects with the Ordinary Shares then in issue and fully paid.
- (f) The Company shall use all reasonable endeavours to procure that all Ordinary Shares arising on conversion are listed or admitted to or dealt in on any securities market on which the Ordinary Shares of the Company then in issue are then admitted, listed or dealt in at the earliest possible date following the allotment and issue of such Ordinary Shares pursuant to the exercise of any Conversion Rights.
- (g) Redemption of Convertible Redeemable Shares
 - (i) The holders of Convertible Redeemable Shares shall (subject to the provisions of the Companies Acts) be entitled at any time to redeem all or any of the Convertible Redeemable Shares outstanding out of any profits or monies of the Company which may lawfully be applied for that purpose on the following terms.
 - (ii) Any holder wishing to redeem Convertible Redeemable Shares shall give not less than 30 days notice in writing to the Company at the registered office stating the number of his shares to be redeemed (a “Redemption Notice”).
 - (iii) On the first business day falling not less than 30 days after the receipt by the Company of a Redemption Notice (the “Redemption Date”) the Company shall be entitled and bound to redeem the relevant Convertible Redeemable Shares in respect of which such notice has been given and the relevant holders of the Convertible Redeemable Shares shall be bound to deliver to the Company at the Office the certificate or certificates for such shares and upon such delivery and against the receipt of the shareholder for the redemption monies payable in respect of his Convertible Redeemable Shares the Company shall pay to the shareholder the redemption monies payable to him in respect of such redemption.

- (iv) There shall be paid on each Convertible Redeemable Share redeemed the amount paid up or credited as paid up thereon.
 - (v) The Company may (subject to the Companies Acts) at any time and from time to time purchase Convertible Redeemable Shares (i) by tender offer (available alike to all holders of Convertible Redeemable Shares) or (ii) by private treaty.
- (h) Other Provisions
- (i) If, whilst any Convertible Redeemable Shares remain capable of being converted into Ordinary Shares, the Company shall make any issue of Ordinary Shares (not being an issue which results from the exercise by a shareholder of an option to take a share or shares instead of a cash dividend) by way of capitalisation of profits or reserves (including any share premium account and capital redemption reserve) to the holders of Ordinary Shares, then the Conversion Price shall be reduced with the intent that the aggregate amount of the Conversion Price to be paid on conversion of all the Convertible Redeemable Shares remaining capable of being converted shall be the same both immediately before and immediately after any such issue of Ordinary Shares and if any doubt shall arise as to the amount of the increase in the number of Ordinary Shares or reduction of the Conversion Price, the certificate of the Auditors shall be conclusive and binding on all concerned.
 - (ii) If, whilst any Convertible Redeemable Shares remain capable of being converted into Ordinary Shares, the Ordinary Shares shall be consolidated or sub-divided, then the Conversion Price shall be increased or reduced accordingly with the intent that the aggregate amount of the Conversion Price to be paid on conversion of all the Convertible Redeemable Shares remaining capable of being converted shall be the same both immediately before and immediately after any such consolidation and/or sub-division and if any doubt shall arise as to the Conversion Rate or the Conversion Price, the certificate of the Auditors shall be conclusive and binding on all concerned.
 - (iii) If, whilst any Convertible Redeemable Shares remain capable of being converted into Ordinary Shares, the Company is placed in liquidation the Company shall forthwith give notice thereof in writing to all holders of Convertible Redeemable Shares and each such holder shall be entitled within 30 days after the date of the resolution for winding up the Company or (as the case may be) after the date of the order of the court for such winding up (either of such dates being referred as the “operative date”) by notice in writing to the Company to elect to be treated as if his conversion rights had been exercisable and had been exercised on the day immediately preceding the operative date on the basis of the Conversion Rate then applicable and in that event, provided he shall pay the relevant aggregate Conversion Price to the Company, he shall be entitled to be paid in satisfaction of the amount due in respect of his Convertible Redeemable Shares as are to be treated as converted a sum equal to the amount to which he would have been entitled on such liquidation by virtue of such conversion, fractions being disregarded for this purpose.
 - (iv) So long as any Convertible Redeemable Shares remain capable of being converted into Ordinary Shares then, save with such consent or sanction on the part of the holders of the Convertible Redeemable Shares as is required for a variation of the rights attached to such shares:
 - (A) no shares shall be allotted pursuant to a capitalisation of profits or reserves except Ordinary Shares credited as fully paid, and upon any such allotment the Conversion Rate and Conversion Price shall be adjusted as appropriate under the Articles provided that no such allotment shall be made if, as a result thereof, the aggregate nominal amount of the Ordinary Shares into which any Convertible Redeemable Shares may be converted will exceed the aggregate nominal amount of such Convertible Redeemable Shares;
 - (B) no offer or invitation by way of rights or otherwise shall be made by the Company to holders of the Ordinary Share capital of the Company, and no offer to the holders of Ordinary Shares (or all such shareholders other than the offeror and/or any company controlled by the offeror and/or any person acting in concert with the offeror) shall be recommended for acceptance by the Board unless the Company shall make or, so far as it is able, procure that there is made a like offer at the same time to each holder of Convertible Redeemable Shares as if his conversion rights had been exercised in full on the record date for such offer or invitation on the basis of the Conversion Rate and Conversion Price then applicable and so that for the purpose of giving effect to this provision no resolution for the disapplication of section 89(1) of the Act (or any provisions replacing the same) shall be deemed to abrogate, vary or modify the rights attaching to the Convertible Redeemable Shares;

- (C) no equity share capital (as defined in section 744 of the Act) shall be issued which is not in all respects uniform with the Ordinary Shares in issue on the date of the adoption of this Article, save for:
 - (i) equity share capital which is uniform except as to the date from which such capital shall rank for dividend;
 - (ii) equity share capital issued pursuant to an employees' share scheme (as defined in section 743 of the Act); and
 - (iii) equity share capital issued pursuant to an offer or invitation which is extended to the holders of Convertible Redeemable Shares.
- (D) the Company shall not (except as authorised by section 146(2) or by section 159 of the Act in respect of redeemable shares) reduce its share capital or any uncalled liability in respect thereof or (except in connection with the writing off of goodwill which arises only on consolidation or as authorised by sections 130(2), 160(2) and 170(4) of the Act) any share premium account or capital redemption reserve;
- (E) no resolution shall be passed whereby the rights attaching to the Ordinary Shares shall be modified, varied or abrogated and it is hereby declared that any resolution for the disapplication of section 89(1) of the Act (or any provisions replacing the same) shall be deemed not to abrogate, vary or modify such rights;
- (F) the Company shall procure that at all times there shall be sufficient unissued Ordinary Share capital available for the purposes of satisfying the requirements of any Conversion Notice.

Ordinary shares in uncertificated form may be transferred otherwise than by written instrument in accordance with the Statutes and relevant subordinate legislation. Transfers of shares in certificated form may be effected by instrument in writing in any usual or common form or in any other form acceptable to the Directors. Any instrument of transfer shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and (except in the case of fully paid shares) by or on behalf of the transferee. The transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of the shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the register of members.

- (iii) Where in respect of any shares any registered holder or any other person appearing to be interested in such shares fails to comply with any notice given by the Company under section 212 of the Act, then the Company may prohibit transfers of such shares otherwise than following a sale shown to the satisfaction of the Directors to be of the full legal and beneficial ownership of such shares at arm's length. Except as otherwise provided by the Articles or the rights attached to any shares issued by the Company, the holders of shares are entitled pari passu amongst themselves to share in the whole of the profits of the Company paid out as dividends and the whole of any surplus in the event of liquidation of the Company. A liquidator may, with the sanction of an extraordinary resolution, divide the assets among the members in specie. The Directors may, with the sanction of an ordinary resolution, offer the shareholders or any class of them (other than those not entitled to the relevant dividend or dividends) the right to elect to receive Ordinary Shares, credited as fully paid, instead of cash in respect of the whole or part of any dividend or dividends which are the subject of the ordinary resolution.
- (ii) Where, in respect of any shares, any registered holder or any other person appearing to be interested in shares of the Company fails to comply with any notice given by the Company under section 212 of the Companies Act, then, provided that the shares concerned represent at least 0.25 per cent. in nominal amount of the issued shares of the relevant class, the Company may withhold dividends on such shares.
- (iii) All unclaimed dividends may be invested or otherwise made use of by the Directors for the benefit of the Company until claimed and the Company shall not be constituted a trustee in respect thereof. - 4.9 David Cicurel is the settlor and a potential beneficiary of the David Cicurel Settlement.

5. Directors' service contracts

- 5.1 On 24 December 2002, each of the executive Directors entered into a service agreement with the Company. The executive Directors' service agreement is for a fixed period of three years in respect of David Cicurel and one year in respect of Ralph Elman, and is thereafter terminable by either the Director or the Company on giving no less than 12 months' prior written notice. David Cicurel's service agreement may be altered, at the option of the remuneration committee, to one year's notice by the Company in the event that there is a material increase in his salary.

Director	Annual salary	Position
D.E. Cicurel	£25,000	Chief Executive
R.J. Elman	£15,000	Finance Director

The annual salaries of the executive Directors will be subject to review by the Remuneration Committee of the Board which will be made up of the non-executive Directors.

The Company may also operate an annual discretionary bonus scheme with bonuses to be awarded by the Remuneration Committee.

The Company may in the future agree to make pension contributions on behalf of executive Directors or to pay the premiums necessary to provide the executive Directors (including spouse and dependant children) private health care insurance. In addition, the executive Directors may become entitled to participate at the Company's expense, in a permanent health insurance scheme.

Each service contract contains a confidentiality clause and a restrictive covenant which corresponds with each Director's general fiduciary duties as a director of a company. However, to the extent that an investment opportunity does not meet the criteria for investment laid down by the Company or the Board decides not to invest in a potential target (being a company which has been discussed by the Board as being a target for potential investment) then each Director shall be permitted to invest personally in such investment opportunity and/or potential target and/or discuss the investment opportunity and/or potential target with third parties.

Further, David Cicurel is permitted in his service contract to continue to assist the Dawnay Day Group and Starlight Investments Limited in business in relation to targets either not introduced by him or introduced by him but which have been rejected by the Board as investment opportunities.

Mr Reece will also be entitled to consultancy fees of up to £4,000 per annum for providing research and consultancy services. Their appointments are terminable by either the Company or the relevant non-executive Director giving to the other not less than 3 months' written notice.
- 5.3 There is no arrangement under which any Director has waived or agreed to waive future emoluments.
- 5.4 Save as disclosed in this paragraph 5, there are no existing or proposed service or consultancy agreements between any Director and the Company.
- 5.5 Between the date of the Company's incorporation and the date of this document, no remuneration was paid and no benefits-in-kind were granted to any Director by the Company. The amounts payable to the Directors by the Company under the arrangements in force at the date of this document in respect of the period ending 31 December 2003 are estimated to be £62,000 (excluding any discretionary payments which may be made under those arrangements).

6. Taxation

The following summary is based on the law and practice currently in force in the United Kingdom. The comments are of a general nature only, are not a full description of all relevant tax considerations and may not be applicable to persons who do not hold their Ordinary Shares as investments. Any person who is in any doubt as to his tax position should consult a professional adviser concerning his tax position in respect of or relating to the acquisition, holding or disposal of Ordinary Shares.

6.1 Taxation of dividends

Under the current UK taxation legislation, no tax will be withheld from dividend payments by the Company.

An individual resident in the UK for tax purposes who receives (or is treated as receiving) a dividend from the Company will generally receive a credit against his or her UK tax liability in respect of such dividend equal to one-ninth of the cash dividend. Holders of Ordinary Shares ("Shareholders") who are UK resident individuals and who are not liable to income tax in respect of the gross dividend will not, save in the case of a person holding the relevant Ordinary Shares through a Personal Equity Plan or Individual Savings Account (for which special rules apply), be entitled to repayment of the tax credit. In the case of UK resident individual Shareholders who are liable to income tax at only the lower or basic rate, the tax credit will satisfy in full such holders' liability to income tax on the dividend. UK resident individual Shareholders who are liable to income tax at the higher rate will pay tax at the rate of 32.5 per cent. of the gross dividend but will be able to set the tax credit off against part of this liability.

A UK resident corporate Shareholder will generally not be liable to UK corporation tax on any dividend received. Such Shareholders will not be able to claim repayment of the tax credits attaching to dividends.

A UK resident pension fund will not be entitled to reclaim the tax credit on dividends paid by the Company.

Individual Shareholders who are resident for tax purposes outside of the United Kingdom, but who are Commonwealth citizens, European Economic Area nationals, residents of the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands or certain other persons will normally be entitled to a tax credit, as if they were resident for tax purposes in the United Kingdom, which they may set off against their total United Kingdom income tax liability. Such Shareholders will generally not be able to claim repayment of the tax credit from the Inland Revenue.

6.2 Taxation of capital gains ("CGT")

Individual Shareholders who are resident or ordinarily resident in the UK will be liable to CGT on any disposal of the Shares, subject to any allowances, reliefs or exemptions that may be available to them. UK resident corporate Shareholders are liable to CGT on any disposal or deemed disposal of their Ordinary Shares, subject to certain reliefs and exemptions.

Changes to the structure of capital gains tax for individuals, trustees and personal representatives were introduced on 6 April 1998, including changes to the rules relating to the holding of shares. A disposal of shares is generally treated on a LIFO (last in, first out) basis for the purpose of calculating gains chargeable to tax. In addition, gains made by individuals, trustees and personal representatives after 5 April 1998 may qualify for taper relief. This relief reduces the amount of a chargeable gain on disposal, depending on the length of time the shares have been held since 6 April 1998. The activities of Judges are such that the lower rate of "non business asset" taper relief is likely to apply.

6.3 Stamp duty and stamp duty reserve tax ("SDRT")

Subject to certain exemptions, a transfer on sale of Ordinary Shares in registered form will attract ad valorem UK stamp duty at the rate of 0.5 per cent. (rounded up to the nearest £5) of the amount or value of the consideration for the transfer. Generally, ad valorem stamp duty applies neither to gifts nor to a transfer from a nominee to the beneficial owner, although in cases of transfers where no ad valorem stamp duty arises, a fixed UK stamp duty of £5 may be payable. SDRT at a rate of 0.5 per cent. of the amount or value of the consideration for the transfer may be payable on an unconditional agreement to transfer Ordinary Shares. If, within, six years of the date of such an agreement, an instrument transferring the Ordinary Shares is executed and stamped, SDRT paid may be repaid or, if it has been paid, the liability to pay such tax (but not necessarily interest and penalties) would be cancelled. SDRT is chargeable whether the agreement is made or effected in the UK or elsewhere and whether or not any party is resident or situated in the UK.

Special rules apply in connection with clearance services and depositary receipts.

Under the Placing Agreement Evolution Beeson Gregory is entitled to a corporate finance fee of £30,000 and a commission of 5 per cent. of the aggregate value of the Placing Price multiplied by the total number of Placing Shares subscribed for by placees introduced by Evolution Beeson Gregory to the Company.
